ANNUAL REPORT

For the year started with a bang where the college dance group gave a stunning performance as a flash mob. It had assertions 40 performers working in complete sync with each other. It was a sight to behold and had the crowd ecstatic. That event set the tone for subsequent activities. Then the college annual day was conducted which had dance performances and award ceremony for the students and finally the event was concluded with a DJ performing for the crowd from the main stage. The students were very happy in the activities and had many students come forward to volunteer for the future activities.

List of students participated under various events and competitions during the A.Y 2015-16
