Celebrations of Independence Day

An Event was Organized by Vidya Jyothi Institute of Technology on the occasion of the "Independence Day" was held in C-block seminar Hall on 15th August, 2016. The Event was started with Flag hosting by our Director and Principal of Vjit. And the event was continued by the speech of our Director.

After the struggle of almost two hundred years, on the dawn of this day, India was freed from the shackles of foreign rule. The declaration of freedom was probably the happiest thing that could have happened to India.

In the span of those two-hundred years before 1947, Indians had to suffer from endless pains that were caused by the Britishers. British rulers did racial discrimination, political and social, oppression, execution of crowds that rebelled, and many more such evils. After much struggle, sacrifices, and continuous hardships, our freedom fighters were able to overthrow the faulty ruling system of Britishers.

. The Day was ended by Cultural Events and vote of thanks.

The meaning Teacher – A person who teaches or guides students for a particular purpose

The meaning GURU- A Person who is an expert in all and has all the answers to his disciples

One beautiful difference is a teacher prepares you to answer the questions whereas as Guru will question your answer.

International Women's Day Celebrations

An Event was Organized by Vidya Jyothi Institute of Technology on the occasion of the "Womens Day" was held in C-block seminar Hall on 08.03.2017. Mrs. Dr. Shyamala Prasad was invited as the chief Guest for this Event. Every year, Women's Day is celebrated with an official theme. The theme for Women's Day 2016 is "Working Mothers". Working woman improves the economic conditions of the house. It helps her to give to her children a better standard of living, better education and better health. Working women are now a day's becoming the need of the country and family. Women should break off their barrier and come out of house to join the greater world of freedom, self-respect, self-reliance and independence.

In ages past, women stayed at home, preoccupied with the family, taking care of children and providing emotional support for the members. But now, they feel that their traditional roles as child bearers and homemakers must be coupled with achievement outside home. In this context, it is inevitable to investigate the impact of such a phenomenon on society as a whole and on childrearing in particular.
