In case you do not receive the advance by the above date in the aforementioned account, please contact us. Further, you are also requested to undertake the following actions:-

- Procure necessary material as required for conduct of the examination as per the guidelines issued by the NTA. Recommended quantity (for an indicative centre strength of 360 candidates) is mentioned at Annexure-II. The quantity will vary depending on the centre strength and deployment of material / manpower as per norms.
- Disburse the amount to engaged staff for actual day(s) of duties as per norms after receipt of attendance, bills and necessary reports.
- Maintain a record of procurement, payment and attendance for the day of briefing as well as examination day.
- Settle the advance at the earliest, preferably within a week after the NEET (UG) – 2020 Examination.
- Send all utilised original bills/claims along with settlement of advance format to the NTA.
- Based on the norms and guidelines for conduct of NEET (UG) finalised by the NTA, Action points Indicative requirement of manpower/material, Responsibility assigned for action points, and Source of Finance attached at Annexure-III
